

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JANUARY 5
PHARAOH OPPRESSES ISRAEL.

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 1:1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—Exodus 1:11. "And the Egyptians made them to serve by hard labor." (Exodus 1:11.)

The book from which the next eight lessons are taken is a continuation of the story of the children of Israel. The central theme is redemption from bondage and their separation into God's people. The story of the Israelites in Egypt is a type of our own redemption from sin's bondage (1 Corinthians 1:1-7). Pharaoh represents the devil, and Egypt the world.

1. The Increase of the Chosen Seed (1:1-14).

After Joseph's death, Israel quickly grew into a nation. This increase was the fulfillment of Genesis 35:11. Joseph was buried in Egypt, but his bones were taken to the Holy Land when they were going to Egypt (Genesis 50:25). It is the problem of how a little company of seventy people could become a host of six hundred thousand men in so short a time, let us remember that God promised it, and all difficulties will vanish. There is a time when there shall be another amazing increase in Israel (Exodus 32:10, 14, 27-28, 37-38).

II. A New Dynasty (1:15-22).
Joseph's elevation in Egypt was during the reign of the Hyksos kings. Being of Semitic origin they were not hostile to the Hebrews, but when they "arose up a new king which knew not Joseph" (v. 8) the amazing growth of the Semites excited his envy and fear (v. 9, 10). This fear was twofold: (1) In case of war, the Semites were the enemy and fight against them; (2) lest they should remove from the land, thus cutting off a vital source of revenue and exposing to danger the eastern border of the land.

III. Measures to Check the Growth of Israel (1:21-22).
These measures place on exhibition the folly of worldly wisdom (1 Corinthians 3:19). Their fatal mistake was that they left God out of their calculations. God had promised that Israel should be great in numbers and might in power. He who plans against God shall miserably fail and shall be shown to be a fool.

1. Cruel Taxation (v. 11-14).
They were placed under heavy burdens. Cruel taxation was placed over them who forced them to build in building treasure cities and all manner of service in the field. This measure was ineffective, for "the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew." This rapid growth resulted in more intense hatred being heaped upon them.

2. Murder of Male Infants by the Nile (v. 15-21).
This measure also was ineffective, as the midwives feared God and chose to obey Him. Because they refused to destroy God's people he gave them homes and children and the boys thereof.

3. Drowning of Male Children in the River (v. 22).
In order to make this measure effective all the people were charged with the responsibility of casting the Hebrew male children into the river. This plan likewise was ineffective, for the very child who was manly upon his throne, was sheltered and nurtured in his own palace.

IV. The Birth and Education of Moses (2:1-10).
The measure which was designed to destroy the Hebrew race, also brought to Pharaoh's palace and educated there the very man who afterward shattered the Egyptian power and set free the enslaved people. The faith of Moses' parents caused them to ignore the command of the king and hide him for three months (Hebrews 11:23). Faith in God led to the deliverance for fear (Psalm 27:1). His mother discerned in him a proper child, or a child fair to God (Acts 13:26), and believed him to be the deliverer of his people. She no doubt fostered this truth in his mind from his childhood.

Perhaps led by the story of Noah's ark she made an ark of bulrushes and placed Moses in it and left it at the place where Pharaoh's daughter would be attracted when she came down to bathe. Miriam, his sister, was placed where she could watch the infant. She came with a suggestion at the opportune moment as to a new-born baby. Education at his mother's knee gave character, and education at the Egyptian court qualified him to be the historian and lawgiver of his people.

5. Necessary Ingredients.
"Love suffereth long and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself." Get these ingredients into your life. Then everything that you do is eternal. It is worth doing. It is worth giving time to.

Self-Denial.
Self-denial when regularly kept up and not only indulged now and then out of laziness or partial affection, is one of the clearest tokens that God's holy spirit is with men, preparing them for eternal glory.—Kelsie.

If you miss the TIMES-VIRGINIAN the local news of your county is also missed. Send it to your distant relatives.

Ornamental Permalum.
As ornamental trees the Japanese and Chinese permalums are entitled to high rank. When the trees are in full leaf they are handsome without other adornment. The trees loaded with orange and orange-red fruits are among the most striking objects in the garden. All thrive in California, and not elsewhere except in some Southern States.

Editorial Weakness.
Min, even in his most state of intellectual development, has his little human weaknesses and we notice that as soon as an editor manages by hook or crook to save up enough to get a automobile, things deteriorate both for the editor and the paper. It is a pity that the automobile is not a more useful thing than it is.

Old-Time Georgia Sign.
At one time cotton men in Macon thought that the presence of a man with a hand organ and monkey on the street of that city had a direct bearing on the cotton market, causing a decline in price. At one time the cotton man was prohibited by municipal law, but later was admitted on payment of a substantial license.—Tribune.

For Weak Women
In use for over 40 years! Thousands of voluntary letters from women, telling of the good Cardui has done them. This plan likewise was ineffective, for the very child who was manly upon his throne, was sheltered and nurtured in his own palace.
